DISCOVER THE NEW COLLECTION OF PASSPORT CASES

Maurice Renoma had fun creating a new collection of grained leather passport cases printed from his photos and illustrations.

Various prints evoking the work of the designer / designer artist were used to create this irresistible capsule collection.

An essential accessory for this globe-trotter from the very start, Maurice Renoma wanted to rejuvenate the passport case by personalizing and transforming it into an arty object.

This capsule collection, released in September 2019, can be discovered at the Renoma boutique.

Price in store : 120€

ART JACKET COLLECTION :
"When Art fusions with fashion"

ART JACKET is a RENOMART "concept-collection". True support of creation, the jackets and blazers are once again reinterpreted under the creative and innovative eye of Maurice Renoma. For this collection, it is from his childhood memories that he drew his inspiration. As a child, Maurice grew up and evolved in his parent's clothing workshop, in the 3rd district of Paris. From a very young age, he liked to collect everything he could find on the floor: bits of fabric, buttons, rhinestones... And it is with these precious treasures that he began to create his first patchwork pieces. He began to think of clothing beyond its primary function, and at the same time ignoring fashion and trends. According to him, clothes are an expression of oneself, an opportunity to thwart the codes and reveal one's personality. Photos, illustrations, fusion-works adorn the clothing to create a whole new story.

The stylist-designer is back with this brand new collection of Custom Jackets and Blazers. The sleeves, back or jacket necks are customized with patchwork overlays of printed fabrics.

20 years after having exhibited in the hippest clubs of Paris (Les Bains, Queen, Man Ray ...) the stylist, who blew the codes of fashion in the 1960s, will inject his creative DNA in the Sacré bar club and disco bar, thereby signing a new concept of club gallery, a place with a strong and unique identity.

This fusion of Maurice Renoma's fashion and arty universe with Parisian nightlife is a true event. Two worlds that telescope to create a cultural event open to all.

THE MEDIA SPEAKS

"THE MINETS" by François Armanet

As we mentioned in our previous newsletter, on the occasion of the release of the book "Les Minets", its author François Armanet cites the brand Renoma as one of the fashion references of that time, dressing the young "twinks" of the Drugstore gang.

Excerpt from the back cover of the book Les Minets - François Armanet

"Phil, Guy and the others, twinks dressed by Renoma and wearing Weston's, could be at times rascals or golden boys. Night clubs and London vacations will be followed by acid trips and Mao-spontex commandos. (I have no idea what that means...)"

Between 1965 and 1975, it speaks of a sentimental, political Between 1965 and 1975, it speaks of a sentimental, political and sexual education in a utopian era, without unemployment or AIDS. A novel about a fast paced period, high on rock and bad vibes".

RENOMA, c'est l'histoire au fil des jours d'une entreprise pleine de projets, d'une équipe qui œuvre pour mettre en forme la vision de Maurice Renoma.
