[ART] Private tour Mythologies du Poisson Rouge,
Scène Symphonique, *Cosmogonie

The three exhibitions gathered for an unprecedented event

Following the success of the Cosmogonie exhibition at Espace Niemeyer in Paris, a new artistic event signed by Maurice Renoma.

Appart Renoma covers iconic works from the Mythologies du Poisson Rouge, Scène Symphonique and Cosmogonie trilogy, gathered together for the first time for a unique event.

Enjoy a private tour on the theme of artistic creation and ecological awareness: the collection is accessible on appointment by writing to presse@renoma-paris.com or by calling +33 (0)1 44 05 38 18.

About the trilogy:

Mythologies du Poisson Rouge, photographic work and eponymous exhibition featuring a plastic goldfish called Cristobal, which, in a poetic and playful way, denounces the overabundance of plastic all over the world. [\[Press kit\]](#)

Scène Symphonique, a cross-exhibition that brings together photographs by Maurice Renoma, a selection of paintings by William Bakaimo and Famakan Magassa as well as fusion works created especially for this event. Ode to metamorphosis in its dreamlike, seductive or even frightening aspects, this pictorial dialogue is the result of a common desire of diverting our perception and staging humanity face of its limits, its demons and its destructive nature. Cosmogonie, exhibition born from the meeting of two worlds, those of Maurice Renoma and Jorge Luis Miranda Carracedo, a real artistic fusion expressed in photos, paintings, sculptures, videos and installations. More than 70 works, resulting from five years of artistic exchanges and correspondence, have been presented for the first time to the public at the Espace Niemeyer in Paris. At the center of this collaboration, the themes dear to the two artists: humankind, anxieties towards society and its excesses, nature in danger. [\[Press kit\]](#)

[ARCHIVE] Timeless aesthetics

Returning from a trip to India in 1966, Maurice and Michel Renoma launched a collection that inspired hippie fashion in France with the fabrics they brought back. It is the beginning of a period of frantic creation which will see successive collections of patchwork, madras, seersucker, colored silk from India, crepe de chine, solaro, linen, scented fabrics, jacquard, linen velvet, viscose,...

From the 1960s to today, the aesthetics created by Renoma marks men's fashion and affirms its timeless character.
