[APPART RENOMA] EXCLUSIVE CONCERT
by VANESSA PHILIPPE on Thursday May 19 at 7 p.m.

Appart Renoma, a place for exchanges and artistic encounters, opens its doors to live music: Vanessa Philippe presents her new album
Soudain les oiseaux with a private concert on Thursday, May 19 at 7 p.m.

«Thanks to my goldfish, I had an incredible encounter. My fish had a doppelgänger called Cristobal who performed alongside Maurice Renoma in Mythologies du Poisson Rouge. This meeting between fishes brought us together around a great collaboration that is only beginning. I had the great pleasure of shooting a new music video for Maurice's new exhibition, Anamorphose.» Vanessa Philippe

The concert is free on reservation (one accompanying person max) within the limit of available places.

[FASHION] The legendary Renoma blazer at the Institut Français de la Mode

On May 20, Maison Renoma is taking part in an exhibition around French counter-cultural clothing between 1960 and 1990, organized by the Institut Français de la Mode. The legendary Renoma blazer could not be missing from the list of clothes and objects presented, witness to the Minets movement and to a time when fashion was a way of reacting, understanding and meaning the world.

Timeless and today an object of study, the blazer at the exhibition has been reworked and transformed: Maurice Renoma, adept to hybridization, affixed other materials to the textile one, as well as his eye as a photographer.

From May 20 to 22, 2022 Maurice Renoma participates with Mythologies du Poisson Rouge in Photo Doc., the documentary photography fair at the Halle des Blancs Manteaux (48 rue Vieille du Temple, 75004 Paris). A place for discovery and experimentation, Photo Doc. is open to documentary photography and new writings.

With Mythologies du Poisson Rouge, Maurice Renoma raises awareness about the chaotic and devastating weight that our way of life and our outrageous overconsumption can have on the planet. In this photographic series, Cristobal appears in all its forms: allegorical, dazzling, funny, ugly, false, decorative, sexy in flip-flops, in nature, as an aperitif on a table, or as the main subject of certain speeches by Jean Cocteau, Victor Hugo and others... but above all as a companion to a story, that of our planet and what we have done with it.

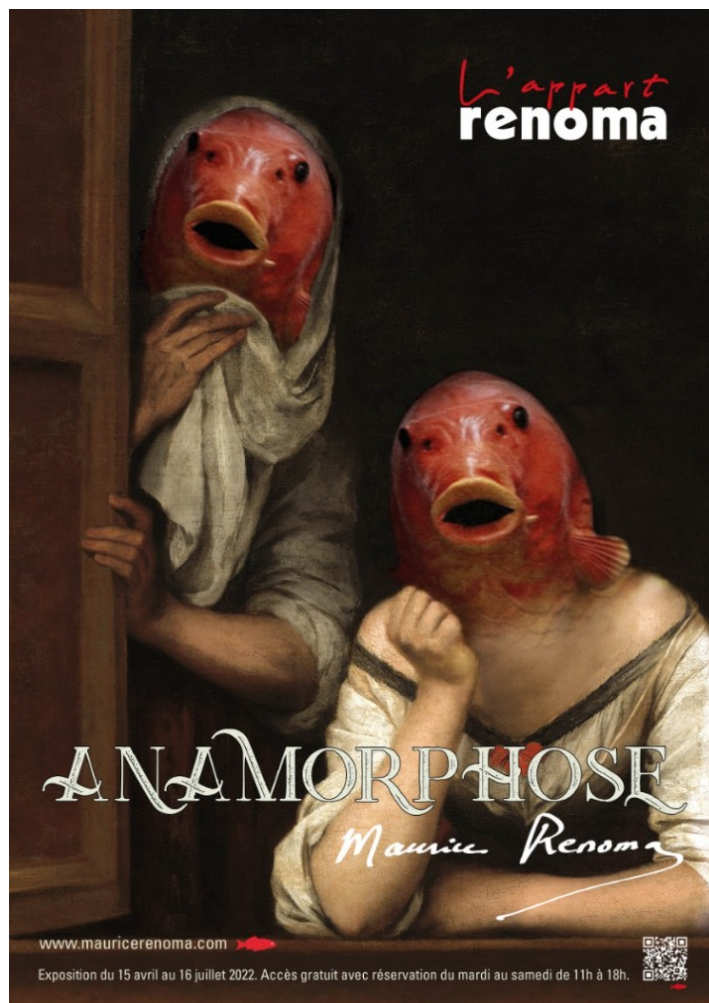

Free admission.

[ART] Ongoing: ANAMORPHOSE, Maurice Renoma's latest exhibition

There is still time to visit Anamorphose at Appart Renoma, Maurice Renoma's latest exhibition which, in a playful and derisory way, leads us to the rediscovery of classical art in spite of the deterioration of the collective memory.

In the continuity of his Mythologies du Poisson Rouge, the artist makes his goldfish Cristobal travel not around the world but through the time, where it enjoys playing with the codes of classical representation.

Cristobal can thus walk in the world of the image, where the laws of time no longer exist. The famous goldfish has the power to address contemporary issues and make them universal: it retells history so that everyone can identify with it and participate in its writing.

Access to the exhibition is free with reservation from Tuesday to Saturday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.:
